

RESEARCH PARTICIPATION – INFORMED CONSENT

PLAY 113 Design Your Habib Experience

I provide my informed consent to voluntarily participate in the research project of students from the Design Your Habib Experience course, supervised by Professor Sahaab Badar at Habib University, Karachi Pakistan. I understand that the project is on problems at Habib University, and that research objectives are to understand what the experience is like for me, my needs with this problem called crowding at entrance gates, and any related challenges and opportunities. My participation will require involvement in an interview, and being "observed" in a specific setting

- I understand that my participation in this study is voluntary and I will not be paid for my participation.
- I understand that I may withdraw and discontinue participation at any time, and have the right to decline to answer any specific question or refuse to delve deeper in a subject which I may be unwilling to address.
- I understand that notes will be taken by the researchers, and photographs may be taken of people or the environment (with consent).
- I understand that I will remain anonymous, and that no one will be able to trace any published information back to me. The researchers will not identify me by my real name in any assignments or reports.
- I understand that personal information which could lead people to identify me or contact me, will remain private under the strictest of conditions. I also have the right to request that certain information shared be kept private as "off the record."
- I understand that the data collected will be used to inform assignments, presentations and other means of public dissemination of findings.
- I have read and understood the explanation provided to me. I had the chance to ask questions and these have been answered to my satisfaction.
